

Federico Gustavo Pizzetti is Full Professor of Public Law, University of Milan, Department of International, Legal and Historical-Political Studies. Born in 1976, graduated in Law at the University of Turin (Italy) in 1999, Federico G. Pizzetti has been Full Professor of Public Law at the University of Milan (Italy), since 2015. He has written more than 150 publications (among which, 8 books), and has been invited or selected speaker to more than 40 International conferences. He is a member of the International Forum of Teachers in Bioethics, medical ethics and medical law, UNESCO Chair in Bioethics; of the European Association of Health Law; of the Italian Society of Neuroethics and Philosophy of the Neurosciences (currently, also President); of the Italian Association of Constitutional Lawyers. He is also affiliated of the Initiative on Neuroscience and the Law Project, Houston Baylor College of Medicine. He has been principal investigator of local units in Italian PNRR-NGEU Project (SERICS), and in Italian PRIN Project (ELVIS). His research areas are about the End-of-Life Decision-making Law, the Constitutional Law and Neurosciences, the Duties to protect vulnerable persons (in particular, against infodemic).