

Matteo Romani graduated in Philosophy at the University of Genoa in November 2022 with a thesis on oppression and discrimination. During his studies he developed interests in issues such as racism, ethics of migration and national responsibility.